

I am honored, yet saddened, to contribute a few word's in the memory of Tihiro. He was always cordial and enjoyed joking with me. He always smiled and would ask me a question that he knew I couldn't answer. It was his way of joking and being friendly. He always seemed to enjoy it when he could put one over on me. Tihiro was a great friend and I miss the daily encounter's we had at GA.

Respectfully,

John Maloney
